

STATE OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

1.

The following is a list of the names of the persons who have been appointed to the following positions:

1. Attorney General
 2. Deputy Attorney General
 3. Assistant Attorney General

4. Assistant Attorney General

5. Assistant Attorney General

6. Assistant Attorney General

The following is a list of the names of the persons who have been appointed to the following positions:

7. Assistant Attorney General

and "These systems of the world are the necessary means of applying power to things in accordance with the social development of mankind."

6. Generalities

- (1) Science is the only way for the state to reach the highest development of the human spirit, while the "bourgeois" sciences serve only the interests of the classes.
- (2) Science represents the only method to be introduced to mankind as a whole through the school. The state should be entitled to an independent control over scientific research in the fields of science subjected to state control, science education and the press in order to ensure the scientific character of research and to make it subject to state control and to the state.
- (3) The state must also be entitled to appoint government officials to carry out the scientific research, while the state should be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.
- (4) Science is the only way for the state to reach the highest development of the human spirit, while the "bourgeois" sciences serve only the interests of the classes.
- (5) The state should be entitled to an independent control over scientific research in the fields of science subjected to state control, science education and the press in order to ensure the scientific character of research and to make it subject to state control and to the state.
- (6) The state must also be entitled to appoint government officials to carry out the scientific research, while the state should be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.
- (7) The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.
- (8) The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.
- (9) The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.
- (10) The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.

7. The State and Science

- (1) The state should be entitled to an independent control over scientific research in the fields of science subjected to state control, science education and the press in order to ensure the scientific character of research and to make it subject to state control and to the state.
- (2) The state must also be entitled to appoint government officials to carry out the scientific research, while the state should be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research. The state should also be entitled to appoint or remove its scientific personnel in the field of scientific research.

- [illegible]